SHELLEY & ROBERTSON Perform 'HOMEWARD BOUND' The songs of SIMON & GARFUNKEL

'Shelley and Robertson' are one of Australia's great vocal duo's. Their career together over 20 years has taken them throughout Australia and the world. They have recorded and performed with Rolf Harris, recorded station id's and character voices for leading radio stations, appeared on the Midday show, sung with the Australian Opera Co., America, and performed in Australia's leading theatres. Their amazing harmony, musicianship, humour and rapport with the audience is evidence of the 20 odd years of performing and touring together.

Simon and Garfunkel defined the term "folk rock", with their close exquisite vocal harmonies and stunning songs penned by Paul Simon. Their rocky personal relationship was seemingly at odds with their amazing musical partnership. They reflected and defined the mood and sentiments of the 60's. Their music remains timeless, etched in the memories of those they touched at the time, and the generations since who have discovered their songs. Great songs and great singing indeed live forever.

'Homeward Bound' is intimate theatre. A fun, nostalgic and story filled performance. Shelley & Robertson will take you on a journey to where you first heard these songs, be you still young or still young at heart.
